TAC slates hearing for beachfront plan

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Beachfront Technical Advisory Council will present its plans for beach repair and development to the public Nov. 7.

The hearing will begin at 7 p.m. in the courtroom of the Hancock County Courthouse.

Plans for the beachfront have been formulated in accordance with recommendations of the advisory council as well as issues addressed in a public opinion survey on beach use and needs.

The agenda for the hearing includes presentation of the results of the opinion poll and the problems and issues the council has identified through those results, according to Jeff Taylor of Gulf Regional Planning Commission.

The plan formulated from those results calls for utilization of the beach as well as road and shore protection, with recreational development concentrated in areas away from most residences.

Principal areas targeted for development include the section of beach along the Bay St. Louis downtown area and the section in front of Buccaneer State Park near Waveland.

Recreational equipment, restrooms and other facilities will be concentrated in those two areas under the development plan.

In residential areas, most of the beach repair efforts will be geared toward protection of Beach Road and reduction of erosion.

A preliminary design for the project has already been prepared by Ralph Fields Consultants, a Norwich, Conn., firm involved in the project through funding made available by Bureau of Marine Resources.

Also to be discussed at the hearing are financing the project, legal issues involved and maintaining the improvements on a long-term basis.

Taylor said that a beachfront commission will probably be formed to assist in long-range management.

"This is something we've never had before and it will not develop overnight," Taylor said.

After the public hearing, several items will probably be altered to conform with additional needs or issues brought forward by those who comment.

In addition, the consulting firm will provide estimates on costs of each item to be included.

The TAC members will meet again Thursday to discuss the development of Buccaneer Beach with officials of the State Parks Commission.

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE—The residence of Mrs. Carmen Colby and Mrs. Ruth Osbourn on Mole Drive near the Jourdan River goes up in flames on Friday afternoon. Fire units from East Hancock, Bayside Park, Bay St. Louis and Waveland responded to the call. A Bay St. Louis unit, first at the scene left Bay High's Homecoming parade. East Hancock Administrative Chief Bill Fields said the house was aflame when the first unit arrived. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

Four units respond

Fire destroys home, damages two others

By ELLIS CUEVAS

One residence was destroyed and two others on Mole Drive near Jourdan River were damaged by a fire Friday afternoon.

The homes were located in the East Hancock Fire District according to Bill Field, administrative chief.

A Bay St. Louis fire unit was the first at the scene, as it was participating in Bay High's Homecoming activities and closest to the fire.

"The area does not have fire hydrants, and the first unit knocked the fire down while trying to protect the adjacent homes until other units could arrive," Fields stated.

The chief continued, "The person who reported the fire, said he went around the building before calling the fire department, and could see flames from every window."

Mrs. Carmen Colby, who with Mrs. Ruth Osbourn owned the home destroyed said, "I left to catch some bait, and Mrs. Osbourn had taken her husband to get a haircut. I saw the smoke and at first thought it was from a neighbor who is always burning trash."

Field stated, "The intense heat from the house and trees caused the two neighboring structures to ignite. Mutual aid played an important part in keeping those two buildings from also being destroyed."

"Bay St. Louis sent a second unit after the first returned to the station. It joined a East Hancock, Bayside Park, and Waveland units, already at the fire," Field reported.

The fire was a long distance from East Hancock's fire station because of the many canals in the area, Field said, and firefighter just happened to be Bayside's Volunteer station when the alarm was turned sounded.

East Hancock is also a volunteer unit.

One of the adjacent buildings owned by Ray Wilson had a bedroom destroyed and smoke damage throughout the rest of the house, according to Field.

The other owned by Paul Tinsley, received fire damages to porch, back steps, and possible roof damages, the firefighter stated.

Field said, "Mutual aid plays a very important role in Hancock County in structure fires, especially with so many of the companies being volunteers. As you could see, there were firefighters from four companies at the scene."

Hancock County sheriff's deputies, Bay St. Louis and Waveland patrolmen also responded to the alarm.

The alarm was turned in at 3:50 p.m.

Ulman Avenue closing to be 'last resort'

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Bay St. Louis Police Chief Ray Murphy reported Friday that closing Ulman Avenue would be a only one of several options under consideration for traffic control.

According to reports earlier this week the closing of a section of the street for the protection of the students in the area was imminent.

Murphy said he planned to meet with officials of Bay Junior High School Monday to discuss other methods of slowing traffic around the school.

Options include speed bumps, additional traffic signs and school flashing lights, he said.

Youth charged with three possum scam burglaries

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

A 16-year-old black male of Bay St. Louis was charged Thursday with three counts of burglary of an occupied dwelling.

Three witnesses picked the youth from a lineup at the Bay St. Louis Police Station after he voluntarily accompanied officers to the station, said Bay Detective David Murtagh.

The three charges are based on burglaries of homes located on Easterbrook, Main and Second streets.

The suspect allegedly told the residents he would catch a possum that had gone under their house, while another person burglarized the house.

He was then arrested at the station by Murtagh and Police Chief Ray Murphy.

The suspect was placed in custody of the Hancock County Youth Court. While being held in detention at the Hancock County Jail, the suspect attempted suicide Thursday.

He allegedly tried to hang himself with a pair of pants, said Sheriff Ronald Peterson.

The suspect was taken to Hancock General Hospital and later released. He is currently still being held at the county jail but other arrangements are being made to insure his safety while incarcerated, Peterson said.

Letting the Sun Shine

You can help your legislators make the right decisions on important issues; they like to know what their constituents think.

One important issue is that of extending daylight saving time. For some, those extra hours of light mean extra hours of sight.

Daylight is particularly important to the over 400,000 Americans affected by retinal degenerative diseases such as retinitis pigmentosa (RP), according to the experts at the RP Foundation Fighting Blindness. This hereditary eye disease causes night blindness and tunnel vision, and often leads to blindness.

If Congress extends daylight saving time by six weeks in the spring and one week in the fall, those affected by retinal degenerative diseases will enjoy enhanced lifestyles, extra independence and self-confidence that only the daylight can bring.

There will be increased safety at Halloween and additional hours for recreation, a reduction of urban crime and energy savings.

To write to Congress on this or any other issue, address your letter to the U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510 or the House of Representatives, Washington D.C. 20515.

Nicolaou to be tried Monday on Poole death

BY DENA BISNETTE
Allen Nicolaou is scheduled to be tried Monday in Hancock County Circuit Court for capital murder in the death of Charles Alan Poole.

Jury selection is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m., according to Circuit Clerk John Rutherford.

Poole was Nicolaou's cellmate in the Hancock County Jail at the time of his Oct. 27, 1984 death. Poole apparently died of suffocation.

At the time of Poole's death, Nicolaou was being housed in the jail because he was awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary at Parchman.

He had pleaded guilty of murder in connection with the Jan. 27, 1984, shooting death of Gerald Comiskey and Keith McMillan at Comiskey's Waveland residence and had been sentenced to two consecutive life terms.

One civil case trial was heard in circuit court this week and a second will be carried over to Monday.

In the completed trial, Alvin P. Gegenheimer Jr. and Cynthia Gegenheimer V. Bud's Mobile Homes and Fleetwood Homes of Mississippi, Inc., the jury returned a verdict Tuesday.

The jury found for the plaintiffs and the court ordered Bud's Mobile Homes to pay $3,000 in damages.

The case against Fleetwood Homes of Mississippi, Inc., was dismissed with the defendant paying court costs.

The second civil trial, Cahn V. Johnson, was suspended Friday for completion Monday morning.

The remainder of this week's docket will either be moved to next week after Nicolaou's trial or will be continued to the January term, according to Deputy Circuit Clerk Pam Metzler.

CHURCH SEAL—The seal of the Presbyterian Church (USA) adopted by the 197th General Assembly in Indianapolis, this year is designed to be a symbolic statement of the church's heritage, identity and mission in the contemporary world. The basic symbolic motifs in the seal are the cross, Scripture, the dove, and flames. Because of its association with Presbyterian history, the Celtic cross was chosen as a model for a more contemporary rendering of this ancient symbol. The two center lines of the cross represent an open book, emphasizing the central role of Scripture in the Reformed tradition. The descending dove is the traditional symbol of the Holy Spirit. It also symbolizes Christ's baptism by John and the peace and wholeness which Christ's death and resurrection bring to a broken world. Beneath the image of the book is the suggestion of a lectern or pulpit, which captures the important role of preaching in the history of Presbyterian worship. Integrated into the lower part of the design are flames which form an implied triangle, a traditional symbol of the Trinity. The flames themselves convey a double meaning. They may be interpreted as a symbol of revelation in the Old Testament when God spoke to Moses from the burning bush. The flames also suggest the beginning of the Christian church when Christ manifested himself to his apostles at Pentecost and charged them to be messengers of the good news of God's love. The triangle also suggests the nature of Presbyterian government with its concern for balance and order, dividing power between ministers of the Word and lay people and between different governing bodies in the life of the church. The seal of the Presbyterian Church (USA) was designed by Malcolm Great Associate of Providence, R.I.

The congregation will also present Mrs. Diana Ford, the pastor's wife, with a pewter necklace and charm depicting the new seal.

TG&Y included in leveraged buyout

Richard C. Rusthoven, president and chief executive officer of TG&Y Stores Co., Oklahoma City, reports an agreement has been reached in principle with Household International and a group of investors including Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette and FoxMeyer Corporation for the sale of Household Merchandising subsidiaries in a leveraged buyout transaction of which TG&Y is a part.

Rusthoven praised the transaction as "a very positive and stabilizing move for TG&Y. Our customers can continue to count on us to serve their needs in all locations."

Rusthoven also alluded to the fact that there would be no management changes and that the corporation would remain at a high level of continuity.

"All of our stores will retain the TG&Y name and we will be operating support facilities as in the past."

Household Merchandising businesses, currently a subsidiary of Household International, Chicago, include 181 Vons supermarkets in southern California and Nevada; 729 TG&Y stores and franchise operations including 1,040 coast-to-coast hardware and 1,600 Ben Franklin stores.

Roger E. Stangeland, currently chairman and chief executive officer of Vons, will be the chief executive officer of the new corporation in Chicago.

In making the announcement, Rusthoven indicated that the transaction is subject to further due diligence and financing arrangements and that the closing would take place no later than year-end, 1985.

Household International will, at the time of closing, receive a cash payment equal to the then book value plus $125 million principal amount of subordinated notes, and a 10 percent ownership position in the acquiring corporation.

TG&Y Stores Co., headquartered in Oklahoma City, operates both variety and discount stores in 26 states and employs over 28,000 nationwide.

Crepes, pancakes, hot cakes, flapjacks, griddle cakes, tacos, blini - call them what you will, just about every country and cuisine has its own version and variation - all delectable.

From the simplest pancake to the fanciest Crepes Suzette so beloved of French cuisine, a crepe by any other name is still good to eat! In fact, the pancake has often been called the "favorite of Prince and Peasant."

Among tasty highlights of the recent International Food Fest of Our Lady Academy on the beachfront in Bay St. Louis were the Crepes de le Mer - Seafood Crepes - served up at the French booth, made by Cynthia Allen.

Delicious crabmeat and shrimp, subtly sauced, and rolled into thin, delicate crepes, again lightly sauced and gratineed briefly under the broiler - Heaven must have such a menu!

If you're wondering how Cynthia managed all this at the Food Fest, she cooked the crepes and sauce ahead of time - I don't know how many hundred of them - and as the eager customers crowded 'round the booth, added up-to-the-minute equipment to gourmet expertise, and warmed each crepe to order in a microwave oven.

And, Janice Logan served as expert assistant crepe filler and roller.

Crepes - the thinnest, richest version of the pancake - are a great boon to the budget, as well, as you can fill them or sauce them or top them as you wish, and according to what's on hand.

In fact, it was Cynthia's father-in-law, the late Frank Allen, newspaperman of newspapermen, who, long years ago, dubbed my pancake suppers "Katy's Too-Much-Month-At-The-End-Of-The-Money Crepes."

It was he, also, after one such supper, who told me in no uncertain terms, that when I started chopping up the hot dogs and putting them in the crepes, he just wasn't coming back to our house anymore, except just after our weekly paydays - and I couldn't blame him, as I did come up with some rather strange combinations at times, and flour and eggs and milk went a long way!

At that time, were all young and struggling newspapermen and I sometimes used to wonder what the ghosts of our house thought of our suppers - as my husband and I were living in part of a handsome old home converted into apartments. We had fancy woodwork and ceiling frescoes and all that in abundance, but of the coin of the realm - any realm - none of us had much in abundance!

But - there's an abundance of good taste in:

CYNTHIA ALLEN'S
CREPES DE LE MER

(Note: this makes 16 crepes - do make the whole batch, and, if you can't use them all, freeze some for future use - it's easy - just stack them with waxed paper in between, cover in foil, freeze; thaw at room temperature or in a warming oven. Reheat, in foil, for 15 minutes in a 350 degree oven, open the foil, and heat for another five minutes or so, so they'll be thoroughly hot - your own "convenience food" no less!

- So, here's the recipe:
- 1/2 cup flour
 - 1 1/2 sticks butter
 - 1 cup chopped green onions
 - 2 Tbsp. minced garlic
 - 2 Tbsp. tomato paste
 - 2 1/2 tsp. white pepper
 - 1 cup clam juice
 - 1/2 cup water
 - 1 1/2 cups heavy cream
 - 2 lbs. crabmeat or shrimp (or combine the two)
 - 1/4 cup lemon juice
 - 1/4 cup dry sherry
 - 3 cups sliced fresh mushrooms
 - 1/2 cup minced parsley
 - 1 tsp. Tabasco
 - 1/2 cup heavy cream, lightly whipped

Lightly brown flour in a stick of butter. Add onions and garlic, and cook until wilted, approximately five minutes or so. Add tomato paste and cook five minutes. Add salt, white pepper, clam juice and water and the first cup and a half of cream and bring to a boil.

Add the seafood, reduce heat and cook slowly for 3 to 5 minutes.

Remove from heat. Melt the remainder of the butter in a skillet (12-inch) and add a teaspoon of lemon juice, mushrooms, and stir, and saute until the water from the mushrooms has evaporated, then add to the sauce along with the remaining lemon juice, parsley and Tabasco.

With a slotted spoon, place some of the mixture in the center of a crepe, folding the two sides toward the center. Place in a shallow baking dish with folded edges on the bottom, reserving the extra sauce. (You may do this ahead - cover and refrigerate until you're ready to serve the crepes.)

When ready, bring the crepes to room temperature. Mix the lightly whipped cream with the remaining sauce, and spoon generously over the crepes. Cook in a 325 degree oven just until thoroughly heated, then gratinee under a medium broiler until a light brown crust forms - and enjoy!

P.S. Modest Cynthia says that she saw this recipe in a book - but I like her variation.

Many favorable comments received on combined school system in county

Our suggestion on formation of a combined high school in Hancock County has received many favorable comments since last Sunday's edition.

Office visits and telephone calls from school officials, elected officials, and citizens all appear in favor of a central high school for Hancock County.

There is no question that due to requirements of kindergarten classes, additions will have to be made at just about every facility in both school systems, unless something else is done.

There are several suggestions we have received, which we feel are worth mentioning.

The feeling expressed by many is that a combined high school would cut the costs of construction from about one-half to three-quarters in comparison to the many additions which will have to be made with the present school systems.

Several educators suggested that Stennis Airport area would be the ideal location for a central school.

Additionally, another suggested a junior high also at that location.

Their thinking is because seventh and eighth grade students at Charles B. Murphy and Gulfview do not have any type of vocational training for students. These opportunities could be provided for these students in addition to the seventh and eighth graders from HNC.

Presently 80-90 high school students in the Bay St. Louis Municipal School System, in addition to some 70-75 from Hancock North Central, are sent each day to the Vo-Tech at Stennis Airport already.

It was also suggested that an administration building and a central bus maintenance facility both could be constructed near Stennis International Airport.

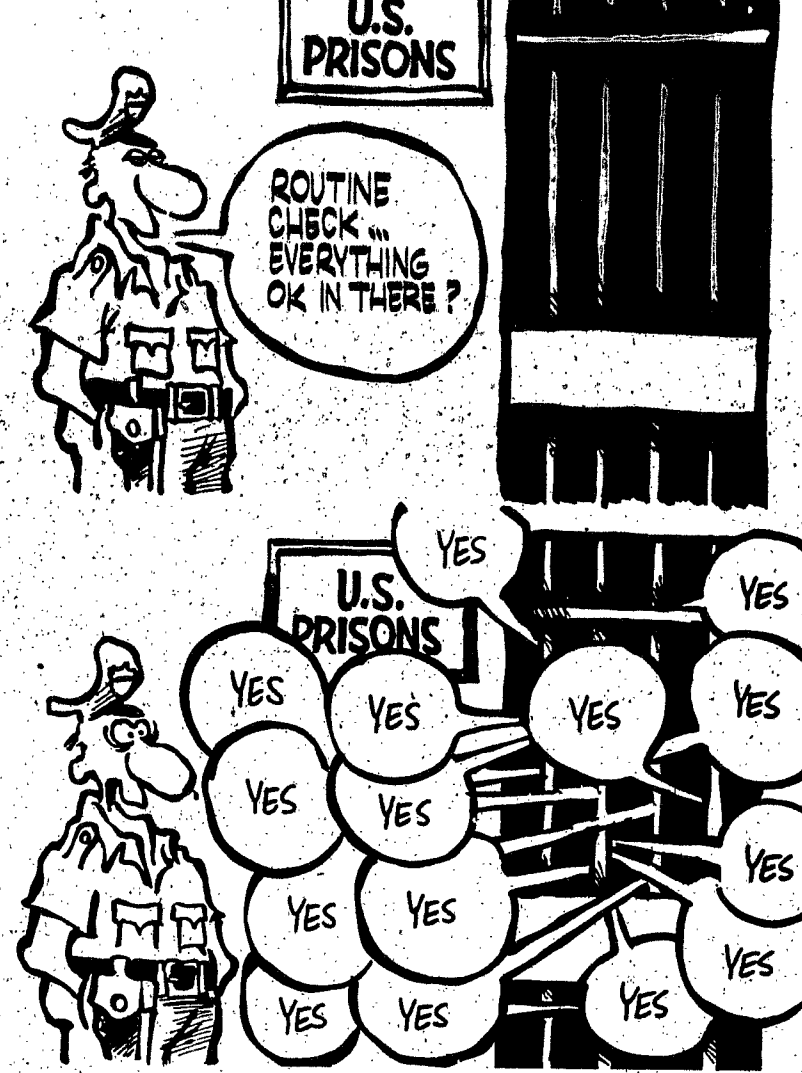

In all probability more specialties could be offered at the Vo-Tech.

With the high school students from Bay High and Hancock in addition to seventh and eighth graders from HNC, CBM, and Gulfview all going to a central school, this would free those facilities for other needed classrooms.

A school board could be selected on an equitable basis from throughout the county.

The time is now for concerned school administrators, board members, teachers, businessmen, parents, and all citizens of Hancock County to take the time to consider the combining of the two school systems.

It could mean a better education for our youth in addition to a saving for taxpayers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Policeman less than polite to teenage speeder

To The Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir:

The citizens of Bay St. Louis should be made aware of the behavior of a police officer on Saturday, Oct. 19 about noon when my 15-year-old son, Keith, was stopped for speeding on Beach Boulevard.

The boy was driving 38 mph in a 25 mph zone, which he believed to be a 35 mph zone.

A police car following him turned his lights on and Keith pulled over and got out of the car to see what the problem was.

The officer spoke gruffly to him and ordered him to get back in the car.

Then he learned that Keith had left his driver's license at home.

He ordered him to get out of the car and to stand against it.

He frisked him, put tight handcuffs on him and took him to the police station after leaving him in the back of the police car about 20 minutes. He never read his rights.

At the station, I was called to come get him, which I did.

When I got home, I called Chief Ray Murphy to protest the rough way my son was treated. He explained that frisking and handcuffing people who are arrested is standard procedure, but that he would talk with the officer and I should call him Monday.

On Monday, Chief Murphy said "Not to worry," that he had "talked to the officer" without elaborating. I told him I appreciated that but that I still did not think that Keith was handled in the right manner.

I have spoken with several attorneys who told me that frisking and handcuffing are not standard procedure for a traffic ticket.

I have also been advised to sue the city over this incident.

I do not want to get any money out of the police department or the city. All I want is an apology. And I want to be sure that when my children are driving, incidents like this will not happen again.

Sincerely yours,
Laura Bernos

A Weekly Editorial
From Mississippi Economic Council

A CHANCE FOR SMALL BUSINESS OWNERS

Some small business owners in Mississippi have a few things they want to say to the federal government.

If you're one of those, your chance is coming.

Last year President Reagan signed a law authorizing the convening of a second National White House Conference on Small Business. The law provides that conferences will be held in each of the 50 states before the national conference is held in Washington August 17-21, 1986.

Specifically, the Mississippi White House Conference on Small Business will be held on February 19, 1986, in Jackson. Delegates to the national conference in Washington will be selected from the participants in the Jackson meeting.

Eight issues of importance to small business owners have been selected for attention in the 1986 conference. They are: procurement and innovation, taxation, entrepreneurial training and education, payroll costs, finance, regulation and paperwork, economic policy, and international trade.

If you're a small business owner in Mississippi and you have something to say on these issues—or any other issue—mark your calendar now for February 19, 1986.

Plan to be on hand in Jackson. This is your chance.

PRIVATE SECTOR ACTION COUNCIL

"The changing economic environment of the last half of this century, coupled with dramatic changes in intergovernmental responsibilities, places pressure on Mississippi state government to seek more efficient and effective responses to its citizens."

This is the introductory statement in the report on state government just concluded and distributed by the governor's Private Sector Action Council. The 44-member Council, appointed by Gov. Bill Allain, issued its report after several months' deliberations.

The Council offers recommendations for revision in three key areas—constitutional, management controls, organizational—and it suggests a model government for Mississippi's future.

Some of the changes recommended are dramatic, as governor succession, appointment of certain presently elected officials, and budget and tax reforms.

The issues are already being debated and that's a good sign. Public debate on issues of importance to the citizenry is in the American tradition.

Most Mississippians seem to agree that what we have now is not working and the time has come for change. The recommendations of the Council, for the most part, seem logical and practical.

A membership coffee for Hancock General Hospital's Auxiliary will be held on Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Anne Ashman, 107 Lafite Drive, Waveland.

The annual event for the auxiliary is to honor volunteers and acquaint new and prospective volunteers with the program at Hancock General Hospital.

Mrs. Edna Kleinpeter, president of HGH's Auxiliary is hoping there will be a large attendance of persons interested in joining the organization which provides so many services to the local hospital.

Since the groundbreaking and start of construction on the Hancock County Medical Center which will replace HGH, it is hoped more residents will become volunteers for the auxiliary.

Interested women are asked to contact Mrs. Kleinpeter at 467-7976 after 5 p.m.

Don't forget, the coffee will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 30.

Halloween is fast approaching and is only a few days away.

Bay-Waveland Youth for the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) will be Trick-or-Treating on Thursday night in the Bay-Waveland area.

Interested youth from fifth through 12th grades are urged to meet at the Our Lady of the Gulf CYO building from 6-6:30 p.m. for assigned areas.

The CYO is the host group this year for UNICEF in the Bay-Waveland area.

It has been several years since a local collection for UNICEF has been made, and the youths are hoping to make a good collection this Halloween.

Every gift can make a difference. When you give to UNICEF, it provides clean water, good food, health, education, and social services for millions of the world's poorest children.

Youths collecting for UNICEF will carry identification, and a UNICEF box.

When they have collected in their assigned area, they will return to the CYO building for refreshments.

While on the subject of Halloween, we would like to urge motorists to use extra caution while driving on that night.

Youngsters will be Trick-or-Treating and many may fail to watch out for automobiles.

We are hoping parents will accompany youngsters while they are Trick-or-Treating.

We hope that everyone will have a safe Halloween.

TAG CHECKS—Out-of-state tags, expired driver licenses and tags are being checked at road blocks throughout the county. On Wednesday, Tommy Powell, left, and Kent Malley, Hancock County deputy sheriffs were checking on Highway 604 in Pearllington. Hancock Sheriff Ronald Peterson said five officers wrote 45 citations in Pearllington and earlier in the week on Dunbar Avenue in Bay St. Louis, 25 tickets were written. Peterson emphasized his department would be setting up road blocks throughout the county checking for out-of-state, and expired driver licenses and tags. Peterson stated, we receive many calls from residents about others having out-of-state tags, and will be returning to check some areas where road blocks have already been set up. "This is an on-going problem. We do regret that we may have to inconvenience some motorists while these checks are going on, but it is necessary," Peterson continued. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

INSECT CONTROL

Fall broccoli, turnip greens and collards are subject to attack from several insects. The most troublesome group is probably the leaf feeders, including the imported cabbage worm, cabbage looper and the diamondback moth larvae.

The familiar white butterfly with three or four black spots on the wings is the adult of the imported cabbage worm. It can be seen flying over the plants during the day.

The larvae are a velvety green with a faint orange stripe running down the middle of the back. The larvae cause the damage to the fall vegetables and usually feed for about 15 to 21 days.

The adult cabbage looper is a mottled-brownish color with a small silvery spot near the middle of the front wing. This spot resembles a sideways figure "8". This insect is much less noticeable than the imported cabbage worm since it is most active at night. Its larvae feed for about 21 days.

The diamondback moth usually does not pose a problem to fall garden crops, but their populations increase after prolonged dry weather. The adults are small, grayish-colored moths less than one-half inch long. The small, greenish colored larvae feed on the undersides of leaves for at least 14 days.

Insect pressure on fall garden crops can be heavy because insect numbers are probably their highest during this period. Wild host plants also are beginning to dry up. Fresh, green crops are attractive to female butterflies or moths for egg laying sites.

As the young larvae emerge they feed on the outside leaves or work their way into the inner parts of the plant. Broccoli or cabbage beginning to head offers a perfect place for worms to feed.

Information about chemicals and rates to control these various insects are available at the Hancock County Extension office.

FALL LEAVES

If you are like some people who burn leaves each fall, you may be sending a valuable soil conditioner up in smoke.

Using these leaves to make compost improves soil quality. Compost can serve as mulch plants and shrubs to save moisture and reduce weed problems.

Keep a four to six inch layer of mulch on all planted areas. This layer acts as a blanket to keep delicate roots from freezing in the winter or getting too hot in the summer.

You're not just limited to leaves for compost. You can use pine straw, rotted pine bark or sawdust. But avoid using hickory leaves or pecan leaves because they will restrict rooting in landscape plants.

For more information about using leaves or other materials for compost, contact your local Extension office.

Hospital hotline to offer help on Great American Smokeout Day

Smokers who want to give up the cigarette habit may find the task easier on Thursday, Nov. 21.

That's the date of the American Cancer Society's ninth annual Great American Smokeout - a day when the nation's 54 million smokers are encouraged to kick the habit for at least 24 hours, just to prove to themselves that quitting is possible.

Nov. 21 is also the day that Biloxi Regional Medical Center's Cancer Programs Office is offering a "Kick The Habit Hotline" for smokers to call in and obtain tips on kicking the smoking habit.

The hotline, 435-2400, will be in operation 9 a.m.-4 p.m., said cancer programs coordinator Janie Jacquet.

"The Kick The Habit Hotline" will be staffed with Biloxi Regional Cancer Program volunteers as well as American Cancer Society volunteers," Jacquet said.

Smokeout Day is celebrated throughout the country as an upbeat lively event, but it has a very serious purpose, since more than 34,000 Americans die each year of diseases linked to smoking, representing one out of seven deaths in the United States.

Cigarette smoking is responsible for 33 percent of all the lung cancer deaths in the nation and in 1985, lung cancer will surpass breast cancer as the leading killer of women. Cigarette smoking is a significant factor in other cancers as well: cancer of the mouth, esophagus, larynx, pharynx, bladder, pancreas, and it has been linked to some cases of cervical cancer.

Last year, a record number of smokers - an estimated 24 million, according to a Gallup survey - participated in the Great American Smokeout.

Of the participants, 5.4 million smokers - about 10 percent of the nation's smokers - succeeded in quitting for the day.

Point of Law

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your legal rights.)

Q. I have moved from Mississippi, but have a house and land still for sale there. I'm having a hard time meeting the mortgage payments and am wondering what would happen to me if I just quit?

A. Foreclosure would likely result. The bank would declare your obligation in default and give public notice of the default and impending foreclosure sale. Once the house and land were sold, the bank or lending agency would owe you the surplus of the sales price, less any costs it sustained in advertising and selling the property (which might be fairly substantial). If the property sold for a reasonable amount, but still not as much as you owed on it, you would be liable to the bank for any deficiency.

The bank might not be able to collect the deficiency from you if you are in another state and have no other assets in Mississippi, but you would be hard pressed to get another loan, mortgage or otherwise, if there were an outstanding deficiency judgment against you in Mississippi. In sum, the penalty would be fairly substantial in economic terms.

Q. I want to know how to apply for a waterwell permit for my dairy herd. I have two three inch (3") wells that are used solely to water my herd, and my neighbor says I must get a permit within three (3) years of the passage of the new water line.

A. While it is true that some ground water users must file a notice of claim by April 1, 1988, to protect their existing rights (Miss. Code Ann. section 51-3-5) it is not necessary for you to do so.

The law exempts from permit requirements all domestic use (section 51-3-7(1)) and domestic use is defined to mean "use of water for ordinary household purposes, the watering of farm livestock, poultry and domestic animals, and the irrigation of home gardens and lawns." (Section 51-3-3(c)).

Also exempted from permits are use of surface water from impoundments not on continuous, free-flowing streams and from wells with a surface casing of less than six inches in diameter. (Section 51-3-7(1)). Therefore your wells would not be required to be permitted because each are less than six inches.

Student posters stress safety

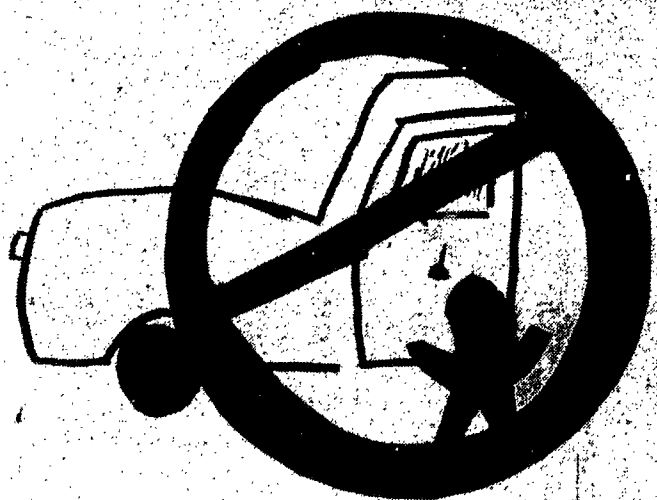

POSTERS STRESS SAFETY—Students from first through fifth grades in Hancock County responded to safety talks by Matt Karl, Hancock County deputy sheriff with posters on safety. These are several examples of the hundreds of posters on Halloween, drug, alcohol, home, swimming, fire prevention and kidnapping drawn by the students from public and private schools in the county. McGruff, the National Crime Dog is scheduled to be at the Hancock County Sheriff's office on Wednesday, Oct. 30; 4 p.m. to congratulate and present awards to many of the winners in the poster contest. Karl said several local merchants have provided toys and gifts for the winners in the project sponsored by the sheriff's office.

Stanislaus Rocks sting Hornets, 28-12

The St. Stanislaus Rockchaws used a balanced running and passing attack to dominate the visiting East Central Hornets 28-12 Friday night at Rockchaw stadium.

Coach Vernon Powell's Rocks, 4-3 on the season, scored 21 first-half points in gathering 290 yards in total offense.

Split end Lon Baxter accounted for two touchdowns of 18 and 26 yards from QB Jimmy Dempsey. Phil Wittmann blocked an East Central punt and recovered it in the endzone for another Rockchaw tally, while Eric Doyle closed out the scoring in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard burst up the middle.

East Central got on the scoreboard after trailing SSC 21-0 midway through the second quarter when halfback Shannon Goff caught a screen pass from QB Charlie Bynum and raced 15 yards into the endzone.

East Central attempted a two-point conversion pass which fell incomplete in the end zone.

Rockchaw assistant coach Rod Herring stated, "I think this was one of our better performances, although we may have gotten a little tired during the later part of the game. Overall the coaches were pleased with the team effort, but we know we must continue this momentum to beat Pass Christian at our homecoming next Friday."

SSC won the opening toss and deferred to East Central who took the kickoff from Eric Doyle and downed it in their endzone.

Trying to run wide toward the outside of the Rock defense was unsuccessful, and the Hornets had to punt. Scott Hodgins punt was fielded by Todd Thriffliey who returned it to the East Central 47-yard line.

A nice delay pattern over the middle by tight end David Williams resulted in an 18-yard gain. Dempsey then threw a swing pass to tailback Todd Thriffliey who was hit and fumbled, but the ball was recovered by SSC on the Hornet eight-yard line.

From this point Dempsey rolled right and found Lon Baxter in the endzone for the first score. Baxter made an excellent catch as he came back toward the ball to make the catch so the defender would be shielded from trying to knock it down.

Eric Doyle then kicked the first of four extra points and the Rocks led 7-0 with 3:13 left in the first quarter.

Doyle kickoff was returned to the Hornet 15-yard line, but East Central was unable to move the ball and had to punt. Lon Baxter fielded the punt and was tackled at the SSC 44-yard line.

The Rocks were again able to move the football, with the key play being a 26-yard Dempsey to David Williams pass completion which brought the ball down to the East Central 18-yard line.

Two plays later Dempsey rolled to his right and found Lon Baxter deep in the endzone. Baxter again showed his pass-receiving skills by catching Dempsey's pass at its highest point as he outjumped Hornet defensive back Charlie Wells for the tally. Doyle's extra point was good and the Rocks increased their lead to 14-0 with 10:10 left in the half.

The Hornets tried unsuccessfully for a third time to move the ball but facing a fourth and six from their 26-yard line, punter Scott Hodgins attempted kick was blocked and recovered by SSC lineman Phil Wittmann for the score. Doyle's conversion increased the Rock lead to 21-0 with 7:42 left in the first half.

Again East Central offense could not get rolling, and punter Hodgins

The third quarter remained scoreless as both teams battled near midfield, exchanging possessions several times.

The highlight of the third quarter was a goal-line stand by the Rockchaw defense. Two nice pass completions by Bynum and two personal fouls against St. Stanislaus brought the ball down to the SSC nine-yard line.

But the Rock defense stiffened as Chris Riley knocked down a pass intended for tight end Stevie Porter. Facing a fourth and goal from the three-yard line, the right side of the Rock defense held Hornet running back Charlie Wells for a gain of only a yard and SSC took over on their two-yard line.

Offensively St. Stanislaus could manage two first downs before punting to East Central, where Wells signaled for a fair catch at the SSC 41-yard line.

However, the Rocks were guilty of another personal foul and the ball was advanced deep into Rockchaw territory at the SSC 16-yard line.

The Hornets tried to pass, as Bynum's screen pass to Chris Vaughn was broken up by YaSin Shabazz. But the Rocks were guilty of another personal foul giving East Central an automatic first down at the SSC 21-yard line.

From this point, East Central running back Charlie Wells did most of the work, and capped the scoring drive with a seven-yard TD run with 7:32 left in the game. East Central's two-point conversion try was no good and the Rocks held a 21-12 lead midway through the fourth quarter.

Lon Baxter took Hodgins kickoff and fought his way back to the SSC 45-yard line, but a clip by the Rocks brought the ball back to the SSC 16-yard line. Rockchaw running back Jeff Reisch made two aggressive runs, picking up first downs as the Rocks attempted to grind out both yardage as well as the time remaining on the clock.

An East Central personal foul for a late hit brought the ball deeper into Hornet territory.

Fullback Eric Doyle gained seven yards up the middle, and a draw play to YaSin Shabazz gave the Rocks a fourth and one from the East Central 17-yard line.

A dive play to fullback Doyle capped the evening's scoring as he rammed through the middle of the East Central defense into the endzone. Doyle added his own extra-point to close out the scoring with SSC in command, 28-12.

Next Friday is homecoming for St. Stanislaus, when the Rocks will face the resurgent Pass Christian Pirates. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

MUSCLE SPASMS

Violent, involuntary contractions of a muscle or group of muscles initiate the painful condition of muscle spasms. They can occur in almost any muscle of the body. Most frequently they occur in the back, neck, stomach or bladder. Even the involuntary twitching of the eye lids, or facial muscles is associated with muscle spasms. The juggle or riddle of their cause has been solved. As it has been shown that the majority of all muscle spasms are caused by nerve root pressure, even though there can be other aggravating factors, injections, muscle relaxants and traction are measures which give temporary relief but contribute little to the correction of the basic cause of nerve pressure. A chiropractic examination will get at the truth of the matter and application of spinal adjustments, if necessary, will permit the correction of the majority of these conditions. Prompt attention in this matter usually brings prompt results.

boomed a 72-yard kick which punt-returner Lon Baxter let roll all the way down to the SSC nine yard line.

The Rocks offense bogged down as Wittmann had to punt. East Central's Chris Vaughn fumbled the punt, but later recovered. A personal foul late hit by SSC advanced the ball down to the 20-yard line, which, to this point, was East Central's deepest penetration of the evening.

East Central wasted no time in taking advantage of this opportunity as EC quarterback Charlie Bynum hit halfback Shannon Goff with a screen pass. Goff raced 15 yards into the Rockchaw endzone behind some nice lead blocking.

East Central lined up for the extra point kick, but the kick and roll-out pass fell incomplete in the endzone as the Hornets cut the Rock lead to 21-6 at halftime.

Bay wins 1985 homecoming

Tigers salvage 14-13 victory with second half comeback

BY DENA BISNETTE

After falling behind in the opening minutes of the game, the Bay High Tigers clawed their way to a second half comeback to edge past the St. Martin Yellow Jackets 14-13.

The Tigers got the one point that gave them their 1985 Homecoming victory because Stace McRaney, taken out a few plays earlier with an injury, could still kick.

"It was a tough one to win," said Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams. "You can't take anything away from St. Martin though. They have a very good ballclub with an effective passing attack."

"Stace did an outstanding job on offense, getting hurt and then coming back for us under pressure," Williams added.

"It wasn't pretty but it was a win," Assistant Coach G.L. McRaney said.

"St. Martin really struck at us. We had too many penalties the first half and key injuries, but we had a lot of sophomores come through for us, particularly Aaron Whavers. We had some receivers who made some key catches."

"St. Martin did well against us offensively during the first half. They had us blocked. We couldn't get to the quarterback."

Although the Bay High Nasty Bunch defense had trouble during the first half, they came back in the second half and effectively stopped St. Martin.

Defensive back Dennis Dear was credited with blocking several St. Martin passes and several key interceptions.

"Dear probably had one of his best games of the season against St. Martin," Assistant Coach Gary Griffin said.

Griffin also praised Tiger Louis Burton for his blocking on offense.

St. Martin wasted no time in getting ahead Friday, intercepting a Bay High pass and starting a drive that ended with a five-yard touchdown run. With the PAT kick, the Yellow Jackets led 7-0 with 7:40 left in the quarter.

St. Martin attempted to increase their lead to 10 with a field goal with :59 in the first, but the attempt was successfully blocked by Tiger Trace McRaney.

Numerous penalties for both sides, including one that called back a long run by Whavers, helped to keep the remainder of the first half scoreless, leaving the Tigers trailing by seven at halftime.

The Tigers began their comeback in the third quarter when Whavers took the football and ran 40 yards around the right side for the Tigers first touchdown of the night.

With the clock showing 1:57 left in the third, Stace McRaney kicked a PAT to tie the score 7-7.

The fourth quarter was crucial for both the Tigers and the Yellow Jackets. The Tigers appeared to be getting ahead when Dear intercepted a St. Martin pass and returned it the the Yellow Jacket 45, but the Tigers were unable to get through the St. Martin defense.

St. Martin, however, penetrated the Nasty Bunch for a touchdown on a five-yard run.

The PAT kick missed, leaving St. Martin leading 13-7 with less than five minutes to go.

The Tiger offense started a drive to even up the difference and brought the ball to the St. Martin five with a series of running plays.

At the five, Quarterback Quentin Bell handed off to Whavers, who found a hole in the left side of the Yellow Jacket line and plunged through it to tie the score.

With 1:23 left in the game, Stace McRaney kicked the PAT to give the Tigers a one point win, 14-13.

The Tigers had a total of 182 yards rushing while St. Martin gained 102. Bay High used their passing game for little gain with 47 yards, while St. Martin had 104.

Penalties were almost even, with Bay High losing 79 yard in 10 penalties and St. Martin losing 85 yards in 11 penalties.

The Tigers, now 8-0 for the season, travel up Highway 603 next week to face their cross-county rival, the Hancock North Central Hawks.

Dogs can't reach sky-high Pirates

By EDGAR H. PEREZ

Sky high and hungry for victory, the small in numbers but gigantic in determination Pass Christian Pirates pounded out a 13-0 win over Vancleave on the Bulldogs' home turf in Jackson County.

Sparked by the inspired offensive and defensive play of tail back and line backer Winston Ausmer, the Pirates put forth "a tremendous team effort," in the words of Pass Head Coach Alton Wright.

The Pirates marched 67 yards in the opening series of the ball game to score halfway through the period on a two-yard plunge by quarterback J. W. Dedaux.

Dedaux's point-after attempt was blocked and the Pirates remained ahead 6-0 until early in the fourth period when tailback Vincent Henderson posted the Pirates' second touchdown on a one-yard plunge.

Dedaux, who inherited the point-after kicking chores due to a knee injury suffered earlier by kicking specialist Rod Jenkins, was elated when his second try sailed cleanly through the goal posts to give the Pirates a 13-0 advantage.

Dedaux's first period touchdown plunge was the climax of a 14-play series initiated from the Pass Christian 33-yard-line which included eight carries by Ausmer for 30 yards.

Completing the drive were short gains on two carries by Henderson and two pass completions from Dedaux to Gary Smith for a total of ten yards.

The Pirates' second touchdown was set up by a 43 yard run by Ausmer to the Bulldogs' one-yard-line.

Dedaux attempted a keeper but was pushed back a yard, and

"We were sky-high, we wanted to win,"

—Wright

Ausmer was stopped in his tracks on a try from the two.

With eight minutes remaining in the ball game Henderson bulldozed through the Vancleave defenses which were concentrated on the line since Dedaux's throwing hand was injured in the first half.

Pass Christian's defense, led by Ausmer, Henderson, Jason Dedaux and David Vontoure, then faced the strongest threat of the evening from the Bulldogs who were determined to make the best of the remaining minutes.

They began a 20-play drive from their own 27 which saw them as close as the Pass Christian five before they were finally forced to give up the ball on downs.

The Pirates' goal line stand against that Vancleave scoring threat was the crowning jewel of a royal defensive effort throughout the evening.

Among the highlights are two fumble recoveries by Vince Henderson and a third by David Vontoure, three quarterback sacks by Jason Dedaux and two sacks by Vincent Henderson.

"We were sky high, we wanted to win and the whole team put out a tremendous effort," Wright said.

"It has been a long year for us and it certainly feels good to win," said the mentor of the 2-5 Pirates.

Ausmer ran for a total of 124 yards, J. W. Dedaux carried for 54 and Henderson picked up 13 on the ground, giving the Pirates a total of 191 yards rushing.

The Pirates gained a total of 23 yards on completion of three passes out of seven attempted with one interception.

The Bulldogs rushed for 72 yards and gained 77 through the air.

Both squads were credited with nine first downs.

The Pirates lost 45 yards on seven penalties while the Bulldogs were set back only 10 yards on two infractions.

Two Pirate punts averaged 39 yards and the Bulldogs averaged 40 yards on two punts.

Pass Christian will visit St.

Stanislaus this week where the Rocks will be celebrating homecoming.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL DAVID CURE

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the September 28 marriage of Pamela Florence Favre and Michael David Cure, both of Bay St. Louis. The Nuptial mass was co-celebrated by the Rev. Monsignor Gregory J. Johnson and the Rev. Patrick Hayes.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mrs. Norma Bradley Favre. The groom's parents are Mr. Joseph E. Cure of Clermont Harbor and Sylvia Bertel Cure of Bay St. Louis.

Brass vases of gladioli, calla lilies and orchids along with brass candelabra and ferns decorated the altar. Aisle pews were adorned with white lace and satin bows with peach orange blossom, jubilee gyp and baby's breath.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Maurice R. Favre, the bride wore a formal gown of white crystal organza over bridal satin with portrait neckline, fitted bodice appliqued with venise lace and adorned with seed pearls, and full, puffed ruffled sleeves. Panels of ruffles extended from the fitted waist to the hemline which featured a scalloped border of embroidered schiffli lace over multi-layers of ruffles which encircled the full skirt and cathedral train.

Her wreath-style headpiece of organza flowers held a fingertip veil of illusion scattered with pearls, and secured with an illusion pouf.

Each carried an arm bouquet of jasmine foliage, fittonia, peach peonies, peach orange blossom, jubilee gyp and picardy bows.

MUW co-eds choose layered look for fall

"Fast fashion" is one way Grayce Hicks, director of Mississippi University for Women's Modeling Squad, describes collegiate fashions for fall 1985.

"We're seeing big shirts and layering. It's a rather thrown together look this season," explained Mrs. Hicks. "Nothing is matched or tailored."

According to Mary Helen Lee of Columbus, an MUW junior and Modeling Squad member, skirts will be either long or short. "Very few knee-length skirts will be worn by college girls."

Paisley and floral prints will be popular this fall along with tapestry, predicted Mrs. Hicks and Miss Lee as they conferred in MUW's Personal Appearance Center.

"Fall fashion has definitely moved away from the men's look," said Mr. Hicks.

"It's all very feminine and sophisticated," added Miss Lee.

"In the past we haven't seen strong colors in winter, but we're seeing lots of strong colors this year. Purple, red, bright yellow teamed with black — just lots of strong colors will be worn this fall," explained the director.

"Black will also be an important color this year," Miss Lee pointed out. "Black will be worn with all of the bright colors."

Purchases by the collegiate set this season, according to Mrs. Hicks, will tend to be "item by item" rather than as a "total outfit" or a "total look." Items will be purchased individually then put together, often without regard to whether they "match," in the traditional sense, or not.

"Nothing this season looks fitted or tailored. Most styles are not made to be fitted, but most of them yield a body-defined appearance," explained Miss Lee.

Miss Lee indicated that many fall styles provide contradictions. For example, "clothes are elegant in appearance, yet they're a little sloppy looking."

"The shape, the fit and the look for fall are really new," emphasized Mrs. Hicks. "Femininity prevails. There is a focus on the body fit, yet it is not tailored. In other words, we've gotten a little more sophisticated even though it's sloppy."

Mixing unusual textures and colors will be the trend along with the use of all sorts of "wild" prints.

"What you've got to realize is that everyone is going to be interpreting this fashion look. One person's interpretation will be different from that of another. It's strictly an individual look. Hopefully, everyone will not select what's wrong for them."

Accessories for coeds this fall will include printed and colored hose, big pins and earrings, sunglasses, large purses and flat shoes. Shoes will be seen in many colors, but purple is expected to be extremely popular.

Sweaters are also a part of the coed's wardrobe. Oversized sweaters with all sorts of designs and patterns will be on the college fashion scene and will be an integral part of the "layered" look.

While Mrs. Hicks and Miss Lee explained what will be seen on many college campuses this fall, they were quick to add that "fast fashions" were not necessarily what they would recommend.

"The bad thing about style now is that it is so trendy. You can't be assured that the fashionable things you buy this season can be worn at all next year. People who invest in this year's styles would be well advised to get as much wear out of them this fall and winter as they can, because these styles are going to be outdated next year," urged Mrs. Hicks.

"Another problem I see with this year's fashions is with color. Many people don't realize what these strong colors do to their appearance. Whatever the age, if you have on a yellow, red or purple top or a fuchsia dress, you're going to be noticed. If you have the personality to handle that strong color, that's wonderful," explained Mrs. Hicks.

"Otherwise," continued the Modeling Squad director, "just a cummerbund or some other smaller accent of that color would be much better than overloading your body with too much of a bright color."

For the pennywise, fashion-conscious coeds, Mrs. Hicks recommends "buying a few dresses and skirts that are up-to-date and middle-of-the-road. By up-to-date and middle-of-the-road I mean not too conservative and not too trendy. In other words, these purchases can bring you up-to-date with color and style, but yet they're not too extreme. Those types of things you can count on wearing more than one year."

Halloween based in dreams of ancients

By Joe Pilet
Halloween, or All Souls' Day, had its beginning with dreams of our primitive ancestors, so historian Henry Thomas tells us.

First these people saw strange figures in their dreams and decided they were the ghosts of departed souls who haunted them during the night and in the day hid themselves in the underworld.

Once each year as winter was approaching these primitive people prepared feasts, built cheerful fires and invited the hungry ghosts to visit the living.

These ancients liked their ghosts, yet they were afraid of them. They believed that ghosts brought droughts, storms and diseases to the living, and felt the feasts would somehow appease them.

The treats they left for the ghosts were bribes to keep the evil spirits from harming them.

Today Halloween is a fun time when young people dress as ghosts, witches, goblins, and during recent years as characters from folk lore.

Young people in costumes appear in the doorways of friends and accept treats of fruit, candy or cookies and promise not to play tricks on those who have given them bribes.

FARMWEEK

A new program designed to educate Mississippi hunters about legalities and safety practices of their sport will be examined on "Farmweek" at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Oct. 28.

Trespassing and roadside hunting are two practices that the program is trying to combat. Though the majority of the state's hunters are responsible sportsmen, many may be unaware of a new law prohibiting trespassing on unposted property. The SMART (Sportsmen of Mississippi Acting Responsibly Together) program explains this and other laws affecting hunters.

Current farm prices, market analyses, news of local and national agribusiness, specific and timely advice for Mississippi farmers and a calendar of upcoming events in the state are included in each edition of "Farmweek," which is coproduced by Mississippi ETV and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

Save Time & Money

BY ANN FRANCIS DOLAN

SOFA SAVVY — Most stores are holding furniture sales now, and if you need a sofa, there are some excellent buys. Know what to look for — a solid hardwood frame; 8-way, hand-tied coil springs; 2 to 3 layers of material over frame and springs. You should not be able to feel construction through the covering. Check to see if padding is wrapped around cushions solidly enough to give crown effect; and that fabric covers are matched at seams and welts.

WOOD MAKEUP — Wood furniture, with elaborate curves and carvings can be cleaned with an electric shoe polishing brush. Make sure brush is free of polish; then buff furniture around legs and decorations. A toothbrush dipped repeatedly in furniture polish will take care of small decorations and hard-to-reach areas. After cleaning wood, sprinkle on some cornstarch and buff to a soft shine.

PEPPER POTS — Baked stuffed peppers and other stuffed veggies nestle nicely in a muffin tin while baking. Eat lots of green peppers, and peel them for a gourmet touch. Place peppers on a baking sheet under the broiler; skins should brown but not blacken. Drop hot peppers in a brown paper bag; close top and they will steam themselves soft. Skins slip off easily when peppers are cool.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WAVELAND AMERICAN Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 77 will host a Halloween Open House at the post home on Coleman Avenue beginning at 6 p.m. Thursday.

"We are emphasizing a safe and happy Halloween for the children of our area," said Mrs. Irene Giacconi, chairman of the unit's Children and Youth Committee.

Giacconi offers the following safety tips for parents and children for a safe holiday:

—Never trick-or-treat alone.

—Young children should be accompanied by older children or adults.

—Parents should know where the children plan to go.

—Select neighborhoods which are well lighted.

—Carry flashlights.

—Do not eat treats until they have been checked by adults.

—Avoid houses without lights.

"People who want to treat the young will have either porch or yard lights or other lights indicating trick-or-treaters are welcome," Giacconi added.

She urged youngsters to patronize the organized open houses, carnivals or parties designed to promote safe and happy Halloween observance.

We fix what matters most.

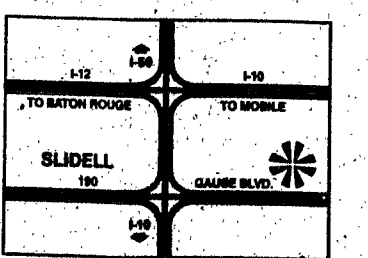

*The only ambulance service on the North Shore with 24-hour coverage by national registered paramedics, from the emergency site to the hospital. Registered paramedics are specialists in recognizing and responding to life-threatening crises.

*A highly skilled, caring emergency and trauma staff, backed by our medical staff of leading area physicians.

*State-of-the-art equipment in ambulances and the Emergency Room.

Another advantage: tiered-pricing. Tiered-pricing means that you pay only for the degree of care you require. Unlike most hospitals, NorthShore does not charge a flat fee for Emergency Room admissions. In other words, a sore throat doesn't cost you as much as a serious fracture.

For yourself and your loved ones, remember NorthShore's 24-Hour Emergency Care Ambulance Service: 646-5050. Outside Louisiana, call toll-free: 1-800-344-6695.

1 mile south of the I-10, I-55 intersection. Adjacent to the Gretna Blvd. (190) exit, east of I-10.
